THE CENTRAL CLUB OF BOSTON.

The CENTRAL CLUB originated in a meeting at Minot Hall, on Saturday evening, May 30th, 1868, at which CHARLES B. HALL was chosen Chairman, and EDWARD TYLER, Secretary, and it was voted, "To proceed to organize a Social Club, to be called THE CENTRAL CLUB OF THE CITY OF BOSTON." The gentlemen present signed an agreement to that effect, and committees were appointed on temporary rules and regulations, on temporary organization, and on location. The meeting adjourned, and met at the same place on Saturday evening, June 6th, when the Committee on Rules and Regulations made a partial report, providing for a temporary organization; for meetings of the Club every Wednesday and Saturday evening at eight o'clock, until June 27th; for a Committee on Membership; and an assessment of five dollars upon each member; and a Standing Committee on Membership, consisting of H. L. Hallett, Francis Dane, Charles H. Allen, D. D. Stackpole, George O.

Carpenter, Weston Lewis, James W. Bliss, William F. Nichols, James H. Freeland, and George D. Wise, was also appointed.

The Club met at the St. James Hotel, on June 10th, when eleven members were chosen by ballot; Weston Lewis was appointed temporary Treasurer, and the temporary President and Secretary were appointed a Finance Committee. It also met at the same place, June 13th, and Charles G. Greene was chosen Chairman; twenty-two members were elected; and the Committee on Organization nominated for temporary officers, Charles B. Hall, as President, A. P. Martin, as Secretary, Weston Lewis, as Treasurer, who were elected. Meetings were held, under this organization, at the St. James Hotel, on June 20th, 24th, and 27th, at which forty-five members were elected; and on September 23d and 26th, 1868, at which a Constitution and By-Laws, substantially the same as the present Constitution and By-Laws, were adopted, and the Committee on Location were authorized to lease Concord Hall for the use of the Club.

The first meeting of the Central Club, at its Club House in Concord Hall Building, was held on the 30th day of September, 1868, at which the following permanent Officers were chosen:

President. — Alexander H. Rice.

Vice-Presidents. — Charles G. Greene, Charles B. Hall, William Cumston, Francis Dane.

Directors. — Henry L. Hallett, Charles H. Allen, Oliver Ditson, George O. Carpenter, William W. Clapp, James W. Bliss, Curtis Guild, Edward Tyler, John O. Poor, Job A. Turner.

Secretary. — Augustus P. Martin.

Treasurer. — Weston Lewis.

These Officers were re-elected, at the Annual Meeting in 1869, with the exception of the Secretary and Treasurer, who having declined, John D. Morton was chosen Secretary, and George H. Allen, Treasurer.

Alexander H. Rice was President of the Club for the years 1869, 1870, 1871, and 1872. Samuel D. Crane was President for the years 1873, 1874, and 1875. Calvin A. Richards was President in 1876 and 1877. Ambrose A. Ranney was President in 1878, and Augustus P. Martin was President in 1879, 1880, 1881, and 1882.

On March 8, 1873, the Club was incorporated, and organized as a Corporation, under Chapter 69 of the Laws of that year. It occupied Concord Hall, as a Club-house, from September 30th, 1868, to January, 1872, when it removed to the house at the south corner of Washington Street and Worcester Square, where it remained until the first day of June, 1882, when it removed to its present location at No. 64 Boylston Street.

THE

CENTRAL CLUB OF BOSTON,

ORGANIZED UNDER ITS CHARTER

December 20, 1873,

AND THE FOLLOWING

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS ADOPTED.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1. The primary object of the Club shall be the maintenance of a Reading Room, the encouragement of kindly feeling and good fellowship among its members, and other lawful purposes; and it may own and hold in its name such property as is allowed and provided for in its charter and the laws.

ARTICLE 2. The Club shall never be called upon, nor permitted to act, in its official or corporate capacity as a Club, upon any political question or subject.

ARTICLE 3. To defray necessary expenditures for house-rent, furniture, and books, and for subscriptions to newspapers, periodicals, and other publications, and for such other purposes as may be thought advisable for the use of the Club: each new member shall pay an entrance fee of fifty dollars, and each member an annual assessment of the same amount, except as is otherwise provided in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE 4. All persons who, at the time of the acceptance of the Charter, were members of the Association heretofore known as the Central Club of Boston, shall become, and are hereby constituted members of this Corporation, without payment of any entrance fee, and entitled to a share in all its privileges and property equally, but in common with each other, and such other persons as may hereafter be admitted as members under its By-Laws, and so long as they may remain members. They are required to signify their assent thereto, by signing a book prepared by the Secretary for that purpose.

ARTICLE 5. Any person who has formerly been a member of the Association and paid the entrance fee, and who shall have voluntarily withdrawn, or resigned, may become a member of this Club, with all the rights and privileges of other members, without the payment of any new entrance fee, — provided the Executive Committee shall, by a majority vote, so determine and allow, and he be re-elected by the Election Committee, and upon signing the book referred to in Article four.

ARTICLE 6. The Corporation shall have a corporate seal, to be prepared and adopted by the Executive Committee provided for in the By-Laws.

BY-LAWS.

I.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the Club shall be a President, four Vice-Presidents, ten Directors, a Treasurer, and a Secretary, who shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Club; who shall be elected first upon the organization of the Club, and afterwards annually, at the annual meeting in December in each year, and shall serve until successors shall have been chosen. The President, or, in his absence, the senior Vice-President in the order of election, shall preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Executive Committee; and if the President and all the Vice-Presidents shall be absent, a chairman shall be chosen by vote.

II.

VACANCIES.

If the office of President or of a Vice-President shall become vacant, the Executive Committee may call a special meeting of the Club to fill such vacancy. If any other vacancy shall occur, the Committee may fill the same by election from the members of the Club, at a meeting called for that purpose, upon due notice.

III.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee for the time being shall take charge of all the property, effects, and assets of the Club, and shall have the management and control of the same, and exercise a general superintendence of its interests and affairs; shall enforce the preservation of order and obedience to the Constitution and By-Laws; shall make or authorize all necessary contracts and purchases in the name of the Corporation, but shall have no power, except in taking and executing a lease of Club House, to make the Club liable for any debt beyond the amount of money which shall, at the time of contracting such debt, be in the Treasurer's hands, and not needed for the discharge of prior debts or liabilities; shall have power, from time to time, to employ such servants and assistants, and make such regulations and rules for the domestic and internal economy, comfort, and success of the establishment, as they shall think proper; and, generally, to do all things which may be necessary for the proper management of its concerns.

IV.

MEETINGS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee, of which five shall be a quorum, shall hold stated meetings on the first Saturday of every month — July, August, and September excepted — for the transaction of business; and special meetings may be called by the Secretary, on request of the President or any Vice-President, or of any two Directors, upon notice printed or written, to be given by him to each member at least twenty-four hours before the time appointed therefor.

V.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall sign and execute all Leases and such other Deeds and Contracts as the Executive Committee may authorize or direct, and the same shall be made with him as Treasurer. He shall keep the accounts of the Club in books which are the property of the Club, and shall, at the Annual Meeting, make a full statement and exhibit of the accounts, showing the condition of the Club, and present a copy thereof, and his account books, to such Auditors as shall be appointed to examine the same.

His books shall be at all times open to the inspection and examination of the Executive Committee or any member of the Club, and he may be dismissed from office by vote of the Executive Committee or the Club, at any time, for refusing to exhibit them, or for any misconduct in the affairs of his office.

The Executive Committee may authorize him to employ such assistance, at the expense of the Club, as they may deem necessary for the proper keeping of his books and preparation of his accounts and reports.

VI.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Committee, and of all the meetings of the Club, and of all other matters concerning it, of which a record shall be deemed advisable by him or by the Committee; and which records shall, at reasonable times, be open to the inspection of any member of the Club.

VII.

MEETINGS OF THE CLUB.

The Annual Meeting of the Club shall be holden no the third Saturday of December, at eight o'clock,

P. M., for the choice of officers, and all other business that may be brought before it; and quarterly meetings shall be holden on the third Saturday of March, June, and September, at such hour as the Committee may direct, for the transaction of such business as may be properly brought before it. Notices of all these meetings shall be posted on the notice-board, by the Secretary, for at least ten days before the times assigned for them respectively: and written or printed notice of the Annual Meeting, addressed to each member, shall be deposited in the post-office at least ten days before the time thereof.

VIII.

SPECIAL MEETINGS.

A Special Meeting shall be called whenever the Committee shall consider one expedient, or whenever the President or any Vice-President shall be requested to call one by the written request of ten members exclusive of the Committee, setting forth the purpose thereof; and notice of any such meeting shall be posted on the notice-board for at least five days before the time assigned therefor, setting forth the matter intended to be acted upon; and no business, other than that so specified in such notice, shall be acted upon at such Special Meeting.

IX.

AMENDMENTS OF CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

No alteration shall be made in the Constitution or By-Laws, excepting at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose, and notified in the manner above directed, or at the next stated quarterly meeting, and after due notice of such intended alteration given as above directed, nor unless by a vote of at least two-third parts of those present.

X.

ANNUAL MEETING.

At the Annual Meeting, the Executive Committee shall make a full report of their proceedings during the past year, and recommend such measures as they shall deem advisable. And the Treasurer shall present his report of the Finances, which shall be submitted to three Auditors, to be appointed by the Club, for examination and settlement, who shall make their report thereon to the Executive Committee at their next stated monthly meeting, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be; and, if the same shall be approved by the Committee, such accounts shall be deemed thenceforth conclusively settled. If it be not approved, the same shall be submitted to the Club at any subsequent stated meeting or special meeting called to act thereon.

XI.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

All elections of officers shall be by ballot, unless otherwise ordered by two-thirds of the members present; and a plurality of votes shall constitute an election.

XII.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

A Committee on Elections, to consist of Twenty members, shall be chosen at the Annual Meeting, who shall elect their own Chairman and Secretary, and have full powers to make its own rules as to its mode of procedure in the premises, and also to fill vacancies in its number.

Whenever any person shall be proposed for membership, written application must be made by a member of the Club to the Committee on Elections, subscribed by him, setting forth the name and place of residence of the person proposed, and date of such proposal. If he is duly elected by the Committee, his election shall be at once reported to the Secretary of the Club, who shall immediately send him a written or printed notice of his election, and request a written acceptance.

Any person duly elected, shall, upon signing a book prepared for that purpose by the Secretary, and paying his entrance fee and a portion of the annual assessment corresponding with the unexpired portion of the current year, become thenceforth entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership.

This Committee shall, at each stated meeting of the Club, report the names, for the purpose of record, of all persons elected by them to date of such meeting, not before reported, and no greater number of members shall ever be elected than will make the whole number at any time three hundred and fifty.

XIII.

QUORUM.

At any meeting of the Club for action on the conduct of a member which may involve his expulsion, or for any alteration of the Constitution or By-Laws, fifty members shall constitute a quorum. For the transaction of any other business, twenty members shall be a quorum.

XIV.

VOTE ON EXPULSION.

A motion involving the expulsion of a member shall be decided by secret ballot, and the decision of a majority shall be final.

XV.

PROXIES NOT ALLOWED.

Proxies shall not be allowed.

XVI.

LIMIT OF DISCUSSION.

Propositions, foreign to the object of the Club as declared in the Constitution and By-Laws, shall not be discussed at any of its meetings.

XVII.

STRANGERS NOT TO BE AT MEETINGS.

No stranger shall be present at any meeting.

XVIII.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

At the Annual Meeting of the Club, the Order of Business shall be as follows:

1. Reading the minutes of the preceding meeting.
2. Report, from the Election Committee, of names of members elected since last stated meeting.
3. Report of the Executive Committee.
4. Report of the Treasurer, and appointment of Auditors.
5. Election of Officers for the ensuing year, who shall immediately enter upon their duties.
6. Any further business regularly before the meeting.

Provided, however, that the order may be changed by a vote of a majority of those present.

XIX.

NO GRATUITIES TO SERVANTS.

No member or visitor shall give any money or gratuity to any servant of the Club.

XX.

NO CREDIT GIVEN BY THE CLUB.

No accounts shall be allowed to be kept with the Steward.

XXI.

RESIGNATIONS.

All resignations shall be made in writing, addressed to the Executive Committee, on or before the thirty-first day of December, and, if made subsequently thereto, shall not discharge the member presenting it from his tax for the ensuing year; and such resignation shall operate as an assignment and release to the Club, of all the right, title, and interest of such member in and to the property or assets of the Club.

XXII.

ASSESSMENTS.

The Annual Assessment shall be payable on the first day of January, of which written or printed notice shall be given by the Treasurer to each member through the post-office, on or before that day: and, if any member shall fail to pay the sum before the first day of March ensuing, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to report the case to the Executive Committee for such action thereon as they may deem expedient, with full power to act in the premises.

But any member who has paid an entrance-fee and one assessment shall be exempted from payment of an annual assessment if absent for a continuous period of a year from the State, after previous notice to the Secretary.

XXIII.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

If any member shall be charged by any other member, in writing, addressed to the Executive Committee, of conduct injurious to the good order, peace, or interests of the Club, or at variance with the requirements of the Constitution and By-Laws, the Committee shall thereupon inform him thereof in writing; and if the Committee, upon inquiry, shall be satisfied of the truth of the charge, it shall request him to resign. If he shall decline to do so, the Committee shall refer the matter to the next stated meeting of the Club, or to a special meeting to be called for that purpose; and the Club, after presentation of the case, and hearing the person so charged, if he shall desire to be heard, may, if it shall think proper, proceed to expel him: and such expulsion shall operate to terminate and vest in the Club all the right, title, and interest of such expelled member in and to the property and assets thereof.

XXIV.

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS.

No person shall take from the Club House any book, newspaper, or pamphlet, or other article belonging to the Club, nor mutilate or destroy the same.

XXV.

SMOKING.

Smoking shall be permitted only in such rooms as the Executive Committee may designate.

XXVI.

GAMBLING.

No gambling shall be allowed in the Club House.

XXVII.

DOGS.

No dogs shall be allowed to be in the Club House, or on the premises belonging to it.

XXVIII.

HOUSE OPEN.

The house shall be open for the reception of members every day except Sunday.

XXIX.

STRANGERS.

A member may introduce a stranger, and shall thereupon register, in a book to be kept by the Secretary for that purpose, his name, and place of residence, and the date of the introduction; to all which such member shall affix his own name. Such introduction shall not confer upon such stranger a right of re-entrance at any other time; but the Executive Committee may, at discretion, give to any stranger a written invitation, entitling him to the privileges of the house for one month; or, with the concurrence of the Committee on Elections, may admit any stranger as a member, upon his paying a half entrance-fee and half of the annual assessment. All persons shall be deemed strangers residing twenty miles or more beyond the limits of the City of Boston.

XXX.

RESIDENTS NOT MEMBERS.

Residents in the City of Boston, and within ten miles of the same, not being members, shall not be introduced into the house more than once, except under the sanction of some member of the Executive Committee.
